December 2019 - Now: As a junior developer for Blackbird (Jam)

Jam is a Parisian startup innovating in the conversational media, connecting the young generations with companies willing to understand them. My role was to design and develop new features in the multi-bot data restitution system and the redaction tool for the chatbot content writers.

Here is a letter of recommendation from Valentin Shamsnejad, the CTO of Jam.

What I learned :

- APIs, MVC, Scrum, Tests, CI/CD
- Programming languages : Javascript, Ruby, Bash
- Other dev tools : Git, Github, Heroku, Linux
- Database : PostgreSQL
- Frameworks : VueJS, Ruby on Rails, Bootstrap

Achievements as a Junior Developer :

- Build Client management system for trends.hellojam.fr
- Implemented several features in the data restitution system, to better manage the insights we create for the business
- Build an API and create an interface for the referral message in redaction tool for the chatbot
